

Daniel Osborn

Daniel Osborn currently serves as the City Director of the Northeast Ohio branch of the C.S. Lewis Institute after serving for fifteen years as a director for student ministries as well as a director of discipleship at Tabernacle Evangelical Presbyterian Church.

Throughout this time, Dan sensed a direction for the local body of intentional discipleship and a true focused response to Christ's call on our lives. It is his passion to challenge followers of Christ to respond to Christ's call to "take up their cross" and in doing so realize the freedom that our Savior offers. One of Dan's favorite authors, Deitrich Bonhoeffer, states it well; "...only through discipline may a man learn to be free."

Dan is married to Brandi, and God has blessed them with three beautiful children. Dan graduated in 1999 with his Bachelors in Theology from Cedarville University and just recently completed a Masters in Organizational Leadership from Geneva College.