

Lori Reign Matta

Lori Reign Matta is a singer/songwriter with a passion for worship ministry. Lori's vision is for God's children to worship Him "in Spirit and in truth" (John 4:23-24). Lori was blessed to release a debut album of original Christian music, "You Are My Song," in November of 2015. She previously released an original EP album, "Most Holy One," in 2013.

Lori has been singing all of her life, and has had the honor of performing on legendary stages such as the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts in Washington, D.C. with prominent artists such as Steven Curtis Chapman, Keith and Kristyn Getty, and Aaron Shust. Her additional recording credits include being featured on David M. Bailey's Christmas CD "Some Quiet Night" (released 2006), and participating as part of a local Youngstown recording ensemble on SoundDoctrine's album "Inspire" (released 2010). Lori has appeared on numerous television and radio programs, and enjoys performing at various venues including churches, community outreach locations, and special events in the Youngstown area and beyond.

Lori serves as a Music Ministry Associate at Old North Church, as well as a Speech-Language Pathologist at Valley Christian Schools. Lori and her husband John moved to the Youngstown area in 2009, and now live in Boardman with their 3-year-old-daughter Liliana (Lily) and 5-month-old son Joshua.

For more information, or to arrange an event, please visit www.lorireighnmatta.com or visit on Facebook at Lori Reign Matta Music!